The village of Bottisham is east of Cambridge on the road to Newmarket

There is no direct public transport - the nearest railway station is Cambridge - served by both Liverpool Street and King's Cross stations. Trains are frequent, journey times are approx. 1 hour from London. Either take a taxi from the station or call our office.

If you are travelling by car Bottisham is best approached from the A1303 Cambridge to Newmarket Road. There is no direct access to Bottisham from the A14

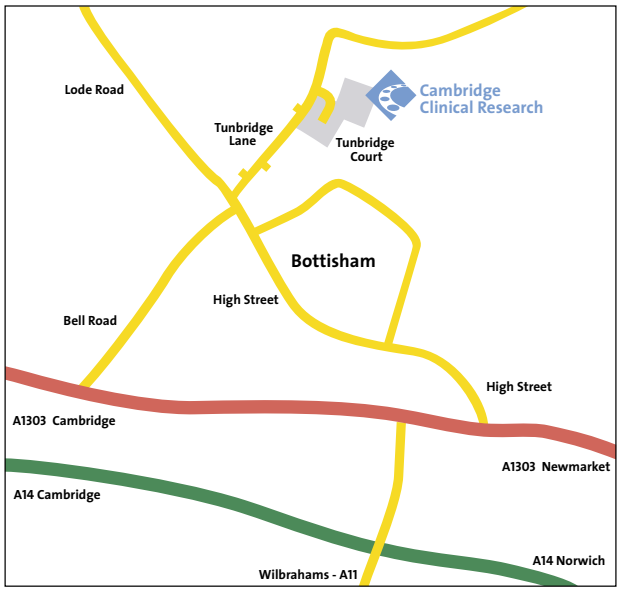
From the West and North leave the A14 at Stow-cum-Quy and take the A1303 to Newmarket.

From the South
Take the junction on the A11 signed 'The Wilbrahams' - follow this winding country road through to the A1303

From the East
Take the A1303 from Newmarket - there is no access to the A1303 from the A14 or the A11



From the A1303 take either Bell Road or the High Street - turn left on to Tunbridge Lane in the centre of the village.

Tunbridge Court is on the left some half mile from the centre of the village.

Our offices are in the building facing you as you drive into the parking area.
